

TAILORED SUPPORT TO HELP YOU BUILD YOUR CAREER

Choose Jobfind when you want more than just a job.
We're here to support you to find and keep meaningful work so you can thrive.

Become skilled for work

We help you improve your employability with new learning opportunities.

Access short courses, accredited qualifications, work experience, pre-employment training and industry insights. Our network of partner providers creates new opportunities for you to upskill into meaningful work.

Your local Workforce Australia Provider

Jobfind delivers Australian Government employment services in your area.

The government assesses your eligibility for employment services support. You can choose Jobfind to be your provider. Our job is to help you become job-ready and look for work by connecting you to meaningful opportunities.

Personalised to you

Tailored and intensive support to help you find and keep a meaningful job.

Your individual needs and goals drive how we map your pathway to employment. We'll explore career options, uncover your strengths, and build up your skills so you're confident and ready to work.

Meet hiring employers

We're always helping employers recruit from our pool of job seekers.

Jobfind is a first-choice recruitment service for many local and national employers. Employers trust Jobfind to recommend suitable candidates for their vacancies.

Friendly and helpful staff

We are people helping people.

Your employment consultant is empowered to devote time and resources to help you succeed in work and beyond. Our staff speak local languages and genuinely care about your welfare.

Stable and lasting employment

Feel more secure about the future.

As you settle into your new job, Jobfind will continue to support you and your employer to overcome any obstacles if they arise. Our goal is to see you off income support and into a job you can sustain long-term.

Get started with Jobfind

Step 1 Register for Workforce Australia Provider Services

Centrelink determines your eligibility for the Australian Government's Workforce Australia employment services. Contact Centrelink who will assess your current needs and personal circumstances to ensure you receive appropriate support. There are 2 levels of support for individuals: online, self-managed job search and reporting; and personalised case management from a provider for people who need intensive support to find a job.

Step 2 Choose Jobfind as your provider

Centrelink will refer you to a Workforce Australia provider close to where you live. You can ask Centrelink to refer you to Jobfind as your first choice Workforce Australia employment services provider.

Step 3 Attend an initial meeting

At your first meeting, you'll meet your friendly Employment Consultant who will work with you to make a plan to assist you into meaningful work. We'll explain mutual obligations and the Points Based Activation System. In our offices, you can access free Wi-Fi, job search computers, photocopiers and printers to support your job search activities.
